

Graduate Students' Association Bulletin

November 2016

Meet the new GSA VP Aboriginal Liaison

Mylan Tootoosis is the GSA Aboriginal Liaison and Co-Chair of the Indigenous Graduate Students' Council. Mylan is Nêhiyawpwat (Plains Cree-Nakota) from Poundmaker Cree Nation located within Treaty Six Territory. He is currently a Doctoral Student in the Department of Indigenous Studies at the University of Saskatchewan. Mylan completed his Bachelors of Arts in Indigenous Liberal Studies at the Institute of American Indian Arts in Santa Fe, New Mexico in 2011, and his Masters of Arts in Indigenous Governance at the University of Victoria in British Columbia in 2013. He is also a certified life skills coach through Red Echo Associates. Welcome Mylan to our Executive Committee!

Campus Legal Services

Campus Legal Services (CLS) is happy to announce it is now operational at the University of Saskatchewan. This is a student run, volunteer clinic where law students, under the supervision of a lawyer, can assist students with certain academic and legal issues. For more information, please visit our website.

Notary Service

The Graduate Students' Association is now offering a Notary Service to our members. A Notary Public is an official of integrity appointed by the Minister of Justice, to serve the public as an impartial witness in performing a variety of official fraud-deterrent acts related to the signing of important documents. For more information, please visit our website.

GSA Mini Library

The GSA is now accepting book donations for our mini library! Please drop off any books you would like to donate to the GSA Commons.

GSA App

The U of S GSA app brings services to your fingertips and enables you to connect with classmates and friends. Access events, calendars, contacts, maps and more! To download, click here.

Upcoming Events

Working in Canada: Effective Job Search and the Canadian Workplace

Are you interested in working in Canada? Looking for a career job or a summer job? Not sure how to begin your job search? Join Kristen Cutting, Employment and Internship Coordinator from the Student Employment and Career Centre, to learn a step-by-step approach to job searching. We will also discuss common expectations and behaviors in the Canadian workplace. You are encouraged to bring your laptop or tablet to the session. To register, login to CareerLink and clicking on 'Events Calendar'.

Date and Time: November 17, 2016 2:30 – 3:30 pm.

Location: Arts 104.

Online Business workshop

The GSA would like to invite you to an online business workshop. This workshop will help you to understand the basic concepts of web designing, domain name registration (.ca, .com, .org, .net, etc.), web hosting, Internet marketing, social media marketing, and blogging.

Date and Time: November 30, 2016 at 4:30 pm.

Where: GSA Common

GSA Council

Date and Time: November 29, 2016 at 5:00 pm.

Where: GSA Common

Reduce your stress. Inform your future. It All Adds Up.

Are you stressed about your future career? Everything that you are doing from your hobbies and activities, to volunteering, to work, to academics really all adds up. Stop by the Student Employment and Career Centre's table in the Upper Place Riel Alcove, have a chat with us and see how everything you are involved in can "add up" to a career, goal or focus for your job search. For more information on this national campaign check out <https://italladdsup.ca/>!

Connect with us

Like our Facebook page to get up to date information on GSA activities and events.

